Chains Chains

Ufo

Jack of Diamonds is a gambling man
He played the tables whenever he can
Take some advice boy, stay clean, stay out of his way
Little Jeannie is a dancing queen
She's been shaking it since she was sixteen
Skips across the tables, acting out her passion play
Wasn't for money, it's only a chance
You take a gamble, that shot for romance
Chains chains, pulling you down
Chain of love that turns your world around
Chains chains, pulling you down
Chain of love that turns your world around
Without a warning, Jeannie took off one night
Jack got so mean boy, he just had to fight
He died on the floor, someone else evens the score
Back on the tables, Jeannie's romance had died
That one look of love that told her a lie
And for her there's no wave crashing on seashore
Wasn't for money, it's only a chance
You take a gamble, that shot for romance
Chains chains, pulling you down
Chain of love that turns your world around
Chains chains, pulling you down
Chain of love that turns your world around
Chains chains
Chains chains
