The Hat

Quicksilver Messenger Service

Woke up this morning thinking about you.
Night creepin' It's so lonely without you.
Got to think about some other situation.
But my mind is ???? and my poor heart's breakin'.It's making me cry, baby.
That's not the thing to do.
I'd rather be lonely.Every morning, the sweet sun comes shining in.
I think about you and bells start ringing.
I know you love me 'cause you make me believe you.
If you don't tighten up your game, mama, your good things gonna leave you.Makiing you cry, baby.
That's not the thing to do.
I'd rather be lonely.My heart is thumpin', girl you got me jumpin'.
Oh pretty mama.
Just what you're doing, I really can't say.
My mind is reeling, I got the craziest feeling inside sweet baby.
Whatever you're doing, you do it the right way.
Whatever you're doing, that's alright with me.Tell me you're leaving? That's alright
I won't cry, I just wanted you to be happy
You know I love you, you're my sweet lovin' baby.
Have a little mercy, mama, you're driving me crazy.It's making me cry, baby.
That's not the thing to do.
I'd rather be lonely.
