

I Won't Be There

Atomic Kitten

I've been looking for the girl that I once knew
The girl with nothing to lose, right before she met you
I've been telling her everything that I've learned since then
Never gonna make them, same mistakes again Oh baby
You know and I know
You held on, I let go
Now is the time to move on Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no Hear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there Looking back I remember when I
Used to sit and cry, every day, all night
I'm telling you everything that you knew has changed
I'll be turning a new page, all the memories erased 'Cause baby
You know, and I know
You held on, I let go
Now is the time to move on Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no I won't be having bad dreams
I won't be having regrets
Tearing at the seams
They're the things I will forget Baby when tomorrow comes You're gonna be the only one
If you'd loved, if you'd have cared
Then babe I would be there Hear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there Let tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no no As the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears

I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no noHear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be thereHear me say, oh no no, never ever
Oh no baby, I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no noLet tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no noAs the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no noLet tomorrow be a new day
I'll be running from the heartache
And I won't be there, no no
I won't be there, no noAs the months turn into new years
Won't be crying any new tears
