

Donâ€™t Cry

Deerhunter

Come on, little boy
I am your friend
And I understand
The pain you're in You've seen your mom come
Come home dreaming
In the rain when you wash
You can't fade it Come on, little boy
You don't need to cry
You don't need to cry
Your eyes out, cry your eyes out Come on, kid
Keep your head up and fight
You don't need to understand the reasons why
Oh why, oh
Why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh
Why, oh why, oh why, oh why, oh
Why, oh why, oh why Your mansions are fading still
Your mansions are fading still
Your mansions are fading
