

Priceless

The-dream

Leave the world behind
I'll leave the world behind (not even my girl)
I'll leave the world behind
I'll leave the world behind Radio Killa She never goes on sale, uh
She always got them nails done
The kind of girl every man is looking for
Her g-string always match her bra And she's always worth my mention
Even if other niggas don't pay attention, to her
Her smile can unite the world
I'm just mad that she ain't my girl I'll give back every song I wrote
I'll give back every song I sang
If I could just roll up on you
Slap my bar code on you and check you out in my lane Shawty, priceless (shawty right, you know)
Yep, she priceless (shawty right, you know)
All the money in the world
Couldn't purchase this girl Don't even ask what the price is (shawty right, you know)
Priceless (priceless), priceless (priceless), priceless (priceless), priceless (oh)
Priceless (priceless), priceless (priceless), priceless (priceless), priceless (oh) No, no, she ain't an R&B singer
No, she don't need 10 karats on her finger
No, regular working girl
East coast but she act like a Southern girl Bobby Brown, Petal lip gloss
Runnin' 'round on her lips 'til I get lost
Real niggas don't kiss, whatever
'Cause I can kiss this bitch forever I'll give back every song I wrote
I'll give back every song I sang
If I could just roll up on you
Slap my bar code on you and check you out in my lane Shawty, priceless (shawty priceless)
Yep, she priceless (shawty priceless)
All the money in the world
Couldn't purchase this girl Don't even ask what the price is (shawty right, you know)

right amount of currency
Even if I hit the lottery in 50 states, baby
And you are the meaning of love
Beyond any diamond I could ever dream of, no pun intended Girl, my story needs you as the happy ending
And asking you to marry me ain't even enough

I'll need you through nine more lives
Seeing your love eighteen times through my eyes
