

Your Shadow

The Bombsters

Do You Remember Days As Sweet As This One
You Thank The Rain That It Pours Out Into The Sun
It Takes a Moment To Walk With you Just To Be
So Take This Moment You've Got In Life To Be Free
And Your Shadow It Doesn't Make A Sound
It's The Shadow That Follows You Around
You Drift Away On A Shooting Star In
Your Head
And See The Sunrise Through Coloured Clouds And Red
Still Holding On To Your Fingers In Your Hand
And Then Resist or Accept Your View Of The Land
And Your Shadow It Doesn't Make A Sound
It's The Shadow That Follows You Around
