Keep It Cool

Sweet Pea

I donâ€™t get it.
My homelandâ€™s a disaster;
still, war is going down.
I wanna say, letâ€™s go crazy;
But I stay cool.

Weâ€™ve got no place to go.
Took away my heart and my soul.
My city is under siege.
Once again, back on our hands and knees.
Wait a minute, Mr. President.
Can I get back some of my money youâ€™ve spent?
One billion a week is out of control.
Canâ€™t you see?
My people are out in the cold.

I donâ€™t get it.
My homelandâ€™s a disaster;
still, war is going down.
I wanna say, letâ€™s go crazy;
But I stay cool.

Temptation setting in.
Prompting us to move toward a life of sin.
My nation is torn apart.
Once again, red and blue in civil war.
Let me holla at the leaders of this land.
Canâ€™t get no justice without your helping hand.
No more quotas, no more action, no more peace.
Here we go again.
Back on our hands and knees.

I donâ€™t get it.
My homelandâ€™s a disaster;
still, war is going down.
I wanna say, letâ€™s go crazy;
But I stay cool.
