

Readymade

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Readymade, readymade
Steady as the rhythm rolls
Readymade, readymade
And this is how the story goes I've gotta cousin making beats
Deep down in Arizona
We're gonna rocket to Ramone's
In the city of Pomona, go Readymade, readymade
Steady as the rhythm rolls
Readymade, readymade
And this is how the story goes And if I give to you my second sight
You got it
And if I stay the course I'll stay the night
Come get it Readymade, readymade
Baby oughta celebrate
Readymade, readymade
And now it's time to deviate I've gotta sister making babies
With a black and decker blow torch
We're gonna fop it all night
In the middle of the back torch, yeah Readymade, readymade
Baby oughta celebrate
Readymade, readymade
And now it's time to deviate And if I give to you my second sight
You got it
And if I stay the course I'll stay the night
Come get it Readymade, readymade
Rockin' for the sake of Slade
Readymade, readymade
Listen but don't be afraid I've gotta brother making trouble
In the state of California
I wish I knew another way
But I'm gonna have to clone you, hey Readymade, readymade
Rockin' for the sake of Slade
Readymade, readymade
Listen but don't be afraid And if I give to you my second sight
You got it
And if I break in two I'll stay the night
Come get it
