Easy Way Out

Mcfly

Been having doubts now,
For a week or two,
She doesn't love him,
Like she used to do,
He's had his chance,
But he's fallen through,
He wants her back,
With him tonight.
She felt the fire,
Burn out long ago,
She didn't tell him,
So he'll never know,
She turns away as he calls her name,
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you love her),
You should let her go (Don't say that you want her),
And leave her alone,
'Cause this time she's leaving you for good,
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you need her),
You're a little slow (There's no easy way out),
It's time to face the fact, she's gone.
She takes a photo,
And she cuts him out,
So much for memories,
They would bring her down,
She sheds a tear,

As he calls her name.
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you love her),
You should let her go (Don't say that you want her),
And leave her alone,
'Cause this time she's leaving you for good,
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you need her),
You're a little slow (There's no easy way out),
It's time to face the fact, she's gone.
Her mind is flooded with emotion,
This isn't where she wants to be,
Lying in the ocean,
Trying to wash away unwanted memories.
She don't wanna know,

You should let her go,
And leave her alone,
'Cause this time she's leaving you for good.
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you love her),
You should let her go (Don't say that you want her),
And leave her alone,
'Cause this time she's leaving you for good,
She don't wanna know (Don't say that you need her),
You're a little slow (There's no easy way out),
It's time to face the fact, she's gone.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/