

A Living Will

Elliott Smith

Time to kill, wrote a living will
And gave it to the man in the moon
But I'm gonna get well soon This happy face is watching me die
Elevate me to another world
All that I can do in my own Is leave well enough alone
Leave well enough alone
Leave well enough alone A circumstance dropped by Uninvited and demand to be fed
But I've already gone to bed
There's nothing you can see from inside My spirit arose
And put on my clothes
And helped me disconnecting the phone To leave well enough alone
Leave well enough alone
Leave well enough alone Time was I was a wire then a mole in a cake
First it's all the reaction, now it's all the rage Waking up by the stations' stop
And reality's invading my brain
The cops gonna search the train
They'll take away whatever they find But I don't have the thoughts you want
Just a memory of love I was shown
A vision that turns to stone Leave well enough alone
Leave well enough alone
