Message 2 U

Isyss

I get crazy butterflies inside thinking 'bout your love
Would it be too much to ask for, for you to open up?
I've been searchin' for an honest man
Someone to make me smile
Like a summer breeze can you feel me boy I'm Reaching outOnly time will tell if what I feel is true
'Cause all I see and feel leads me back to you
Some way some how I want to know your love
And you don't even realize heaven sent you from above
Yes I hopeHope you get this message I send
Because I love all the time that we spend
I've been longing for you to come through
I hope you get this message for youIsn't it scary how we lose control of what we feel inside
Barely knew your name a short while ago but now you are my life
I've been waitin' waitin' for the perfect opportunity
To let you know just how I feel and what you mean to meOnly time will tell if what I feel is true
'Cause all I see and feel leads me back to you
Some way some how I want to know your love
And you don't even realize heaven sent you from above
Yes I hopeHope you get this message I send
Because I love all the time that we spend
I've been longing for you to come through
I hope you get this message for youAnd my life has no meaning at all if I can't Give my heart and soul to you and for you
I'm giving it all
Whatever it takes I'm sending
This message for you
