Fighter Pilot

Ass Ponys

Time marches on so I've heard and I won't contest it
Still I would like to believe that I've got a bit more time
I could tell this to you but I wouldn't try it
I'm diving down over you like a fighter pilot
But all the ammunition's gone
And all the engines have been blown
Watch it all go up in smoke oh noI've been put off in my search for the perfect fortress
Still I can dream of a place where I know I'd win the fight
I could tell this to you but I wouldn't buy it
I'm diving down over you like a fighter pilot
But all the ammunition's gone
And all the engines have been blown
Watch it all go up in smoke oh no
