

Through The Eyes

M. Pokora

You can watch disaster
Yes, without pain
See a million people
Standing homeless in the rain You can read about it
Be outraged
You can change the channel
Turn the page It is somebody's problem
Not your problem, no
You can try to forget it
Close your eyes Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby girl
Try to see what she sees
Out of this crazy world Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby boy
Try to see what he sees
In a world been destroyed Hey you, it's time to look alive
Hey you, we gotta help those kids to survive Listen people, can't you see?
It's between you and me,
We can change destiny
You and me, we must agree
To step out tragedy
Find a way set them free Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby girl
Try to see what she sees
Out of this crazy world Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby boy
Try to see what he sees
In a world been destroyed (You can make a difference)
Don't pretend you can't see that (Can't go pretending)
Don't pretend you can't see that
(You can make a difference)
Open your eyes
Open your eyes Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby girl
Try to see what she sees
Out of this crazy world Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby boy
Try to see what he sees

In a world been destroyed Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby girl
Try to see what she sees
Out of this crazy world Looking out through the eyes
Of a sweet baby boy
Try to see what he sees
In a world been destroyed
