Head Up High

Firewind

You're a dreamer, and you live in a world
Of lies, full of sinners.
You will never understand.
You're a great deceiver, a result of a system
That's fake, always holds you.
Are you really in command?This is the time to change and make things right,
This is the time to make it on your own.You'll never be yourself,
Don't ever lose your pride,
Just find out who you are,
You keep your head up high.
You'll never be yourself,
Don't ever lose your pride,
Keep your head up high!You're not a believer, you just go with the flow,
Never an achiever.
You will suffer in the end,
You thing you're a winner, but this game you play,
Will make you burn in fire.
Smile and wake up dead.You're not forever so you're aiming higher,
You stumble in every step you take.You'll never be yourself,
Don't ever lose your pride,
Just find out who you are,
You keep your head up high.You'll never be yourself,
Don't ever lose your pride,
Keep your head up high![SOLOS]You'll never be yourself, (never be yourself)
Don't ever lose your pride, (oh oooh)
Just find out who you are,
You keep your head up high. (keep your head up high)You'll never be yourself,
Don't ever lose your pride,
Keep your head up high!
