

Overlord

Lamb of God

You never proved me anything but right
You're all surprises, consistency, defied
An overwhelming sense of predictability
I don't say we slide into mediocrity(Another day spent) buried in the shadow of your doubt
(Always the same) but still you refuse to figure out You will destroy you
Distorted, tore yourself in two
Your will absorbed you
You can't ignore you anymore A new time of declaration of distress
Strife, misery, and the pursuit of unhappiness
Endless complaining, no accountability
No reek of privilege and weightless tragedy(Another day) spent buried in the shadow of your doubt
(Always the same) but still you refuse to figure out You will destroy you
Distorted, tore yourself in two
Your will absorbed you
You can't ignore you anymore Cry over the silken pillow
Clipped wings beneath a crooked halo
A perfect child who never looks at the mirror
Right in your face, but not any clearer A problem hidden in plain view
Is staring right back at
You All the world's a stage
But you are the only player
A black hole in the center of the universe, a dark cloud of despair Caught in an endless rut
A crisis without solution
Someone should stitch your mouth shut
And solve your fucking problem Strife
Another day in misery
Always the same
Strife
Another day in misery
Always the same You will destroy you
Distorted, tore yourself in two
Your will absorbed you
You can't ignore you anymore Anymore
Anymore
Anymore
Anymore
Anymore
