

Noesis

Blue Six

Remember the first time I saw you in his face
I thought this has to be love
Now seems that I can't find you any place
And I finally had to give up If you are all this thing that's real
I'm the one who is lost
So in need of something to believe
I waited there for your call Then you touched me
And the scales fell from my eyes
There was nothing more to find Listen hard to what you had to say
Saw the world that you are
Then both just waiting, floating innerspace
Like the earth and moon and stars And you touched me
I could feel it in my heart
We're never meant to part Who am I to be if not your love
Where are you if not in my eyes
What are we gonna do out here except ??
No one doesn't cross Come touch me
I held him in my hands
I could finally see it there
It's beautiful
