

Bright Red Carpet

All Star United

She's a neon girl,
She follows that buzz
To where it's found, 'cause she's the scene
Tinsel town calls her the queen
And that's alright, but if you demand spotlights
Get ready to blow
'Cause Heaven steps on false attempts to glow
I gotta know
Chorus:
Will you be there when they roll out
Bright red carpet?
Will I see you by my side?
Will you be there when we walk on
Bright red carpet?
Will I see you by my side?
He's a stylish guy, he steals a room
Even looks good in everything
Soon Hollywood will call him king
And that's OK, 'cause Armani likes the way
You wear your clothes
But Heaven's gate
Is no place for fashion shows
I gotta know
Repeat chorus
You try so hard, and you get what you get
But in your heart
I hope you never forget
A selfish soul will never stroll on red carpet.
Repeat chorus
