

Untouchable, Pt. 2

Anathema

Why I should feel this way
Why I should feel this way
Why I should feel the same
 Something I cannot say
 Something I cannot say
 Something I can't explain
 I feel you outside
 At the edge of my life
 I see you walk by
 At the edge of my sight
Why I should follow my heart
Why I should follow my heart
 Why I should fall apart
Why I should follow my dreams
Why I should follow my dreams
 Why I should be at peace
 I feel you outside
 At the edge of my life
 I see you walk by
 At the edge of my sight
 I had to let you go
 To the setting sun
 I had to let you go
And find a way back home
 I had to let you go
 To the setting sun
 I had to let you go
And find a way back home
 (When I dream, I see you)
 (When I dream, I see you)
I've never seen a light that's so bright
I've never seen a light that's so bright
I've never seen a light that's so bright
 Blinded by the light that's inside
 Blinded by the light that's inside
Blinded by the light that's inside you
 I had to let you go
 To the setting sun
 I had to let you go

And find a way back home
