Nowhere (feat. KYLE & Rita Ora)

Clean Bandit

I still keep thinking that you
Would tell me the truth
But you never do
No, you don't
Sugar [?] mirrors and lies
That perfect disguise
Do you better price
No, you don'tI wish I could go (wish I could go)
Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the car (the car)
I don't know
Why do I follow
When you lead me nowhere
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down where I still believe
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhereYou let my love [?]
You're not gonna change
You're not gonna change
No, you won't
Staying up at night in a pray gets better
Waiting for a change in the weather
But I ain't gonna wait it forever
No, I won't
Yeah, I wish I could go (could you take me)
Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the car (anything may be)
I don't knowWhy do I follow
When you lead me nowhere
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down where I still believe
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhereOh my, I just missed my line

Help me, I'm so blind
I just love your lies, yeah
How can you blame me?
You make it sound so amazing
Deep down I know that you hate me
Baby, it's so entertainingI wish I could go (wish I could go)
Back to the start
And tell myself that I hold the car (I hold the car)
I don't know
I wish I could say (wish I could say)
All the things I wanna say
And then walk away
I don't knowWhy do I follow
When you lead me nowhere
You take the dark road
And baby, I go there
There's a part of me
Somewhere deep
Down I still believe
That's why I follow
When you lead me nowhere
