

High Five

Chuck Loeb

High five, high five, high five

High five, high five

When you in the club and you see me, high five

You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five

You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live

When you see a playa what you give him high five

When you in the club and you see me, high five

You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five

You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live

When you see a playa what you give him high five

It's been long nigga, I been strong nigga

Big rim Jolly Rancher cars y'all mount up

Do my damn dance work my legs pop my hands

Young money yep I want a blockhead ho

The block said, "Dro you need to drop" well here it go

Let's go hey, gone, gone

When the work come chirp then purp come chirp

Then prototype Chevy it's a James Bond 'vert

All we do is work and holla, "Fuck'em"

Westside man we gon' buss'em

When you in the club and you see me, high five

You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five

You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live

When you see a playa what you give him high five

When you in the club and you see me, high five

You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five

You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live

Order me a snail plate I think I want some frog meat

Triple thick chinchilla take the skin off the lizard

Knock him off tonight and in the morning let his children know
Bitches get flip-flopped I feed 'em all Cheerios

Big bank wet paint Jackie Chan stereo
Money hungry Dro eatin' paper like a billy goat
When you in the club and you see me, high five
You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five
You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live
When you see a playa what you give him high five
When you in the club and you see me, high five
You know I'm just a thug when you see me, high five
You know I'm that fresh man I keep the shit live
