Lines

From Zero

I used to think that we were just like so tight
Wants some company
Always finding the time, always finding the time
Always making the time for usAnd all the time that we spent laughing, loving Always comforting, always coming around
Always coming around
Will it come back around again?I used to think that we were cool
Never thought you'd tell me lies
Never thought you'd lead me on
But you stuck it in my face
And you stabbed me in my back
Now I'm stuck here on my ownAll I ever wanted was for us to keep that feeling
You cross me once, you cross the line
I said, "Come on, come on
I'm gonna make you see the light
I'm gonna make things turn out right this time"You cross me once, you cross the line
I said, come on come on
I'm gonna make you see the light
I'm gonna make things turn out right
I'm gonna make you feel meNow that you've shown me your true colors
Guess it's time to say goodbye
See ya some other time, see ya some other time
"Catch you some other time", I saidWhy did you have to be so cat-like, cold-like?
It was easier to run me around
Yeah, to run me around
You were running inside my headSomeone tell me, what to feel or who's to blame?
Did we lead very separate lives?
Everybody that you meet walks to the beat of a different drum
I'm gonna make you feel me
