Crawl

Sparta

All that you say is complimentary
Within these walls where lies are on display
If you hide the truth then rest assured
There's nothing left to say, there's nothing left to doThe difference between in finding what you love
And loving what you've found is killing us right now
It'll always be true, living as one beats dying as two
We both know this can't go onCrawl back in place, I promise not to chase
I guess this time I loved what I could taste
What the years have lost is what I've gained
There's nothing left to give after everything I gaveThe difference between in finding what you love
And loving what you've found is killing us right now
It'll always be true, living as one beats dying as two
We both know this can't go onThis can't go, this can't go
This can't go, this can't go onCrawl back in place, I'm trying not to hate
I guess this time I'll watch you fade awayThe difference between in finding what you love
And loving what you've found is killing us right now
It'll always be true, living as one beats dying as two
We both know this can't go on
