

Pathetic

Nasum

Things seemed so nice for the first few weeks
    Didn't care she didn't notice me
Then I asked her does she wanna hang out
    Get something to eat
She said I'm just another guy with high hopes
    A real sorry sight, I'm also half her height
    I'm just another guy in the crowd
    She laughed at me, I died
I wrote her a song, took me a real long time
    To get everything to rhyme
    Read in a magazine girls like it best
    When you're honest with them
    She said the song sucked big time
I'm a talentless clown, she doesn't want me around
    She said the final goodbye
    A punch in my eye, I died, I died
