

Black & White Mountains

Snowblink

Orca colored mountains-- zebra colored mountains --panda mountains
Yes serious mountains sit seriously

In the dry end-of-day-light your eyes let go their green
Like a cloud of shining birds decided on a different tree

Though they newly knit their nest,
When they go, they can't carry

O'oh geodes for lungs
Intone your bouldersong
Oh you killer-whale mountain!
Buried to your neck in sea and shell
When your fiery fist forged itself

A bandanna of ash over your face
You gallop gun-glad all through the place

And scatter the stones you expire
Until your mighty monologue tires

Orca, zebra, panda mountain
Looka, she's a serious mountain
Oh yeah, black and white, lava-drinkin', hard-workin' mountain
