Judas Rising

Judas Priest

White bolt of lightning came out of nowhere
Blinded the darkness created the storm
War in the heavens vengeance ignited
Torment and tempest attacks like a swarm
Forged out of flame from chaos to destiny
Bringer of pain forever undying
Judas is rising
Eternal betrayer ice cold and evil
Taking no prisoners dark prince of the world
Humanity trembles enslaving you sinners
You can't beg for mercy for none will be saved
The burden of sin echoes the prophecy
Ascending from hell forever despising
Judas is rising
Their faith is revealed deceivers are crying
By crucified steel evangelizing
Judas is rising
Judas is rising
