Too Much Thinking

Triumph

Child or tomorrow
Painful is today
Fathom if you can
Burning bridges, concrete and clayLighting candles
Searching in the night
For a voice of reason
In the age of wrong am I right?Modern visions
Portray just society
Will it be righteous in time?Too much, too much thinkin'
Yes I know
Too much thinkin'
Tryin' to understandTry and steal away
Each and everyone
Contemplate the madness
Before the deed is doneSee tomorrow coming
Shake the hand of fate
Mirror, mirror on the wall
Is it all too lateProphets of doom
Fearful of the violence
Preaching to no one at allToo much, too much thinkin'
Yes, I know
Too much thinkin'
Tryin' to understandChild or tomorrow
Painful is today
Fathom if you can
Burning bridges, concrete and claySee tomorrow coming
Shake the hand of fate
Mirror, mirror on the wall
Is it all too lateModern visions
Portray just society
Will it be righteous in time?Too much, too much thinkin'
Yes I know
Too much thinkin'
Tryin' to understandToo much, too much thinkin'
Yes I know
Too much thinkin'
Tryin' to understandToo much thinkin'
