Chase a Little Love

LoCash Cowboys

I got a Saturday night, girl, that I've been saving
You've got a sweet kiss, I've been dying to taste it, taste it
Baby, take off them shades and let me see them blue eyes
Wanna look real deep and get lost in them one time, one time
Baby, all nightWhoa oh oh
Got an empty seat
Whoa oh oh
So hop in with meAnd take a ride, moonlight,
Do whatever feels right,
Your lips on mine, runnin' all the stop signs
Radio so slow, creep down an old road
Ain't nobody gotta know
Where we are, let's go!
Catch a feeling, park up on the hill and turn out the light,
Chase a little love tonight.Baby this old truck ain't no Range Rover
It's got a custom leather bench seat so you can slide over,
And get closer, 'til you're right up on my shoulder.Whoa oh oh
Let's roll 'em down
Whoa oh oh
And rock the speakers outLet's take a ride, moonlight,
Do whatever feels right,
Your lips on mine, runnin' all the stop signs
Radio so slow, creep down an old road
Ain't nobody gotta know
Where we are, let's go!
Catch a feeling, park up on the hill and turn out the light,
Chase a little love tonight.Shine them wheels, wash that truck,
I'm gonna pick you up
There you go looking fine,
Sure enough gonna make you mineWhoa oh oh
Yeah, let's roll 'em down
Whoa oh oh
Rock the speakers outLet's take a ride, moonlight,
Do whatever feels right,
Your lips on mine, runnin' all the stop signs
Radio so slow, creep down an old road
Ain't nobody gotta know
Where we are, let's go!
Catch a feeling, park up on the hill and turn out the light,

Chase a little love tonight.
Let's chase a little love tonight.Chase a little love, chase a little love tonight.
Chase a little love tonight.
Let's chase a little love tonight.
