A Skylit Drive

Save me

The skin thatâ€™s stretched across your bones

The scent that lacks the innocents I know

Cold front coming, like blisters threw your pores

Breathing youâ€™ll trust me darling

I'm the sword inside your stone

The rest of your life

May it rest in my eyes

Meet me, at the skylines

I'll wait for you to go

I'll wait for you to go

Meet me at the skylines

I'll wait for you to go

I'll wait for you.

Save me

The skin thatâ€™s stretched across your bones

The scent that lacks the innocents I know

Cold front coming, like blisters threw your pores

Breathing youâ€™ll trust me darling

I'm the sword inside your stone

The rest of your life

May it rest in my eyes

Meet me, at the skylines

I'll wait for you to go

I'll wait for you to go

Meet me at the skylines

I'll wait for you to go

I'll wait for you.

Meet me at the skylines

I'll wait for you

Meet me at the skylines

Meet me meet me

Meet me at the skylines

Meet me at the skylines
