When the Wolves Cry

Theatres des Vampires

The eyes in the dark when the sky is red the howling wind when the rain fall on the earth!!A moonspell broken blood of my bride terror in the night when the wolves cryVeni! Veni! Veni! Satana!
Veni! Veni! Veni! Satana!
Veni! Veni! Veni! Satana!Take your cross when the sky turns black because the Vampires come out from their biers!!The forest breathes this enchanted atmosphere mother of suffering...mother of evil mother of all dark creatures
