Real Things

Javine

Hottest, finestEverybody wanna be wearing jewelery
Escapin' reality, running the city
So you wanna be number 1?
Don't forget where you came fromIt's not about me and you
It's about the things we do
Most guys don't have a clue, material issues
How can I make you see
The real things in life are free?Hottest, finestWe don't someone
That can show you what true love means
Need someone
That'll never let you down
Need someone
To tell you that they love ya and always be aroundYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to meYou could be the baddest
Be the most stylish
You could be rolling in moneyIt don't matter what you got
If your heart is out of loveYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to meI don't mind pretty things
Wouldn't mind a diamond ring
But trust me I'll be chipping in
I take what life bringsGotta do what you decide
But do what feels right
I just wanna keep it real
That's just how I feelIt's not about the J O B
But the R E S P E C T
How can I make you see
The real things in life are free?Hottest, finestWe all need someone
That can show you what true love means
Need someone
That'll never let you down
Need someone
To tell you that they love ya and always be aroundYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to meYou could be the baddest
Be the most stylish
You could be rolling in moneyIt don't matter what you got
If your heart is out of loveYou could be the hottest

You could be the finest
It don't matter to meIf ya got it you don't have to flaunt it
If I don't show it, don't mean that I ain't got it
No, it don't mean a thing if you ain't got real things
Shoo-op, shoo-op, shoo-op, shoo-op
Shoo-op, shoo-op, shoo-op, shoo-opYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to meYou could be the baddest
Be the most stylish
You could be rolling in moneyIt don't matter what you got
If your heart is out of luckYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to meYou could be the baddest
Be the most stylish
You could be rolling in moneyIt don't matter what you got
If your heart is out of luckYou could be the hottest
You could be the finest
It don't matter to me
