

The Tutts

so what
 so fuck what
 so what
 if i stay up late enough
 something might happen
 and if i drink just enough
 i may be happy
 if i think just enough
 i'll see that nothing really matters
 something might happen
 to be to try
 the girls and guys
 to see to cry
 as we watch them fry
 to flee goodbye
 while the innocent try
 the plea the sigh
 try and indemnify
 with dignity and thought crucify the lot
 the bought and sold

 unraveling the knot
 all boiling cold
 smoldering in rot
 the stories been told
 although we forgot
 there has to be something there has to be someone out there
 there has to be a answer a prescription a prayer
 something might happen
 i may be happy
 if i think just enough

so what
