

20 Years

55 Escape

Go...Line!!Twenty, your life feels his sentence Supose you're alive
You'll never look outside anymore
So shut the door and close your eyesTwenty years of torture
Twenty years of pray
(you gotta run) You gotta betry for your sins
the sins that I have madeWhen you're tired of running, rest here by my side keep your life from sinking down (20 years of pain)
When you're tired of running, let your head to rest come and lay it on the lineThis, this, this, motherfucker!!Your soul sometime will be hatred it's not you anymore You're scared of what's beyond your walls so say goodbye and shut your eyesTwenty years of torture
Twenty years of pray
(you gotta run) You gotta betry for your sins
the sins that I have madeWhen you're tired of running, rest here by my side
keep your life from sinking down (20 years of pain)
When you're tired of running, let your head to rest come and lay it on the line (the sins that I have made)motherfucker, go! x2When you're tired of running, rest here by my side
keep your life from sinking down (20 years of pain)
When you're tired of running, let your head to rest come and lay it on the line (the sins that I have made)When you're tired of running, rest here by my side
keep your life from sinking down (20 years of pain)
When you're tired of running, let your head to rest come and lay it on the line (the sins that I have made)
