Pearls Of Light

Within Temptation

After the cold darkness
In the heart of the forest
Where birds are singing
For the new born sun
In the womb of the leaves
On the branches of the trees
Lies the treasure in the morning
The pearls of light
Carried away by thee truculence of my world
I got lost in the search for enlightenment
The blue ran, covered my roots
And I forgot where I came from
Carried away by thee truculence of my world
I got lost in the search for enlightenment
The blue ran, covered my roots
And I forgot where I came from
