

Pistol

Dustin Kensrue

Love how you curse when I wake you up.
Sweetly demand that I fill your cup.
with the smile of your cool gunpowder glare.
Honey you lay me bare.

your the girl of my dreams, and a pistol it seems.
But you should be straight and true.
Time to lay down my bets.
Oh I put all my money on you.

When im in the dark girl you bring me light.
It seems like youre almost always right.
So keep boxing my ears when i sew them shut.
Baby you sure are tough

youre the girl of my dreams and a pistol it seems.
but you should be straight and true.
Time to lay down my fears.
Honey i feel so safe around you.

And if a man taught me anything.
Its that a hard headed woman is what i need.
To help me to always do my best.
Baby my life is blessed.

Youre the girl of my dreams.
Darling please wear this ring.
Youre an angel through and through.
Time to lay down my life.
Honey id do it gladly for you.

Time to lay down my life.
Honey id do it gladly for you.
