Moose Blood

I guess you're right and I'm fucking wasted
I don't know what sense I am making
Deep down you know it's true
She's gone and she's the one that left you for someone else, someone new
I'm sorry girl but yeah you know I've got youDon't tell me it was so glamorous
Powdering your nose and getting undressed
You're not fooling me, you're not fooling anyone
You needed help and that's when she came along
She never cared enough to stick around but yeah you know I've got youI swear to god she's not a mother, she never was
Why do you bother giving her your time?
She's not worth mine but I will if you want to I'll call her
I swear to god she's not a mother, she never was
Why do you bother giving her your time?
She's not worth mine but I will if you want to I'll call her
