

Lord Laro--A Lovers License

Lord Laro

Loving is like driving, so you should know your traffic code, an inexperienced driver cause heartaches on the road, breaking traffic lights, skidding wrong corners, den goin' too fast and when the woman ready to cruise, you hear him run outta gas.

But a lovers license,
should be just like a driverâ€™s license,
you get a learnerâ€™s permit,
and then you practice the things to do,
and on the night of the exam, youâ€™re arm in arms with your woman, and if she tell you honey youâ€™re great,
then you get your marriage certificate.

Your body is your vehicle, of it you should take proper care, your doctor is your mechanic, for any wear and tear, well if you run outta oil, that could drive any woman mad, but the worst thing to happen to you, is when you front and give up.

Yes a lovers licence,
should be just like a driverâ€™s licence,
you get a learnerâ€™s permit,
and then you practise the things to do,
and on the night of the exam,
youâ€™re arm in arms with your woman,
then you get your marriage certificate.

Your bedsprings is the highway, so when you behind the wheel, consideration for the next?? driver is something you should feel, on them bumpy roads caution should be your goal, cause the worst thing to happen to you, is get a flat as you hit the hole.

Yes a lovers licence,
should be just like a driverâ€™s licence,
you get a learnerâ€™s permit,
and then you practise the things to do,
and on the night of the exam,
youâ€™re arm in arms with your woman,
then you get the marriage certificate.

Yes a lovers licence,
should be just like a driverâ€™s licence,
you get a learnerâ€™s permit,
and then you practise the things to do,
and on the night of the exam,
youâ€™re arm in arms with your woman,

A lovers license,
should be just like a driverâ€™s license,
you get a learnerâ€™s permit,
and then you practice the things to do,
and on the night of the exam,
you arm in arms with your woman, and if she tell you honey you're great
