

Don't Look in My Eyes

Kenny Rogers

All my memory is safely packed
And my dreams are neatly folded away
I've got nothing to show
To a love that might have told okay. All the tables and chairs
They're standing empty and bare
And there isn't any sign you were here
So just walk out of the door, try not to get too near. You might look in my eyes
And see all the pain and sadness deep inside
Don't look in my eyes
That's where I keep the tears I can't hide.
If you've just gone, it'll be alright
I know I'll get through the night
And I even smile as we say our goodbyes
Just don't look in my eyes. All our photographs are stored away
And our letters are there, burned in the fire
There's nothing left here that make me believe
We had nights of tender love and desire. If this seems to be gray, I'd like to hide away
There's nothing to remind me of you
When you walk out of the door
Just be sure whatever you do Don't look in my eyes
And see all the pains and sadness deep inside
Don't look in my eyes
That's where I keep the tears I can't hide.
If you've just gone, it'll be alright
I know I'll make it through the night
And I even smile as we say our goodbyes
Just don't look in my eyes...
