Air Conditioning

Beat Connection

It always makes me wonder why why
Even try at all
Working to uncover your love
How long has it been seen I've seen you last
I left a message on your phone
How many sleepless nights have passed
Without you, without you
I take it back, but you don't want that I give up this waiting (?)
I take it back, cause its so easy to forget what I already know
Maybe you were right
But i just dont feel like
Giving up on you tonight
I take it back, but you don't want that i give up this waiting (?)
I take it back, cause its so easy to forget what I already know
I take it back, but you don't want that I give up this waiting (?)
I take it back, cause its so easy to forget what I already know
