Anything for You

Brendan James

I woke up early from my bed
With a secret in my head
In the back of my backyard
I keep a spaceship in the shedI lit the engine and took the sky
From up here it looks so nice
I didn't stop until the moon, where I Picked a flower just for youRefrain:
And I fell down to you in a parachute of newspaper rubber bands, tape, and glue
So you would see I would do anything for you Anything for youI didn't want to wake you up, so I put the flower in a cup
On the floor next to your bed
Without a sound I laid my headDrifted off into a dream
Of what has been and what could be
I saw your tears, I saw you fall
But I saw us rise, I saw it allRefrainAnd I never want you to know
All of the lengths I've gone
To find where the flowers growLove is never supposed to be A present under our tree
I do it because I believeRefrain
