

Rock'n Roll

Mitt piano

1, 2, 3, 4

No, I want more

5, 6, 7

It's not OK

How come you taste so good?

This time I'm really hooked

It's half past ten, it's getting late

But the night is young and I can't wait

You know I like it loud

You should know me by now

Something sweet or something strong

Seems like love no longer can turn me on

Like boy need girl and girl need boy

Got a nasty habit called rock'n'roll

But you don't know what it's like

I've done things you've only dreamed about

More than once or twice

It keeps me up at night

Jump up, bubble up, what's in store?

Bryan looked for love, but I want more

I found another beat, there's no time for sleep

Something sweet and something strong

Seems like love no longer can turn me on

Like the girls in suits and those pretty boys

I gave my heart to rock'n'roll

To rock'n'roll

Rock'n'roll (x2)

Oh, oh..

So you can call the police

I'm sorry 'bout my manners, but you see,

I'm a bit drunk as you can see

I bet you would like to undress me

Something sweet and something strong

Seems like love no longer can turn me on

Like boy need girl and girl need boy
Got a nasty habit called rock'n'roll

Something sweet and something strong
Seems like love no longer can turn me on
Like the girls in suits and those pretty boys
I gave my heart to rock'n'roll
Rock'n'roll (x2)
Oh, oh..
