Madison

Jude Cole

Dream town, no money down
Young girls shine electric in the sun
Mirror mirror, up in the sky
Tell me, why should I be the lowly one?Big splash, low on cash
I don't know baby, and I don't care
See, it comes and goes
It's the highs and the lows of the hundred dollar millionaireI promised her, I wouldn't stay
She calls me every single day
But the rain don't snow and the hurt don't show
And I don't think, I can let it goMadison, ooh, Madison
It's a long way home Madison
Heart breaker, what does it take
How many times can a fool say, I forgiveBefore he falls into a stranger's arms
And finds out what it's like to live
You could say you're sorry in your sleep
But your apologies are cheapBut my heart feels strange
Like something's changed
Like, I don't think I'll be back againTo Madison, ooh, Madison
It's a long way home Madison
I'll write your name down on a pretty red balloon
Give it a kiss and let it fly straight to the moon
To the moonAnd my heart feels strange
Like something's changed
Like I have been born againMadison, ooh, Madison
It's a long way home
It's a long way home
To Madison, Madison
To Madison, to Madison

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/