Open Eyes

For Today

Iâ€™m in over my head, but help is on the way
When all hell stands against us, weâ€™ll have the victory
Iâ€™m in over my head, but help is on the way
When all hell stands against us, weâ€™ll have the victory

We will prevail

We will prevail
I keep my eyes upon the Savior, and tear my eyes away from every worthless thing
For my eyes were made to see Your glory.

Now I am not my own, I was bought with a price
Bought with the blood of heavenâ€™s precious King
So now I gladly give You all of my life, to manifest Your goodness in everything
Only You can set me free, only You can set me free, so I fix my eyes upon You
Only You can set me free, only You can set me free, Youâ€™re the One that I belong to
(I belong to You)

Purify my eyes
Let wisdom be my narrow path (purify my eyes),
And righteousness my guide, purify my eyes
Deliver me from youthful lust (purify my eyes),
And fix my gaze upon my calling, purify my eyes.

The rising Son is all I see, the bright and shining One who died for me.
The rising Son is all I see, the bright and shining One who died for me.
The rising Son is all I see, the bright and shining One who died for me.

And You demand every part of me

Now I am not my own, I was bought with a price
Bought with the blood of heavenâ€™s precious King
So now I gladly give You all of my life, to manifest Your goodness in everything
Only You can set me free, only You can set me free, so I fix my eyes upon You
Only You can set me free, only You can set me free, Youâ€™re the One that I belong to

Iâ€™m in over my head, but help is on the way
When all hell stands against us, weâ€™ll have the victory
Iâ€™m in over my head, but help is on the way

When all hell stands against us, weâ€™ll have the victory

Darkness will not prevail
The rising Son is all I see, the bright and shining One who died for me
The rising Son is all I see, the bright and shining One who died for me
