Pride (Off Axes Mix)

Damageplan

I'm sickened
I know I've been betrayed
But I keep ignoring
The warning signsYou tell me
That I'm not beneath you
But you act above me
Knives in my spineNow, with all the money in the world
You can't buy my respect
Yeah, it's just a matter of pride
But that's all I've got leftI reach up
For your hand as you stand
Looking down on me but
You turn your backI believed you
Now everything that we had
That I thought was sacred
Has turned to blackNow, with all the money in the world
You can't buy my respect
Yeah, it's just a matter of pride
But that's all I've got leftPrideNow, with all the money in the world
You can't buy my respect
Yeah, it's just a matter of pride
But that's all I've got leftPride
Pride
Pride
