Great Escape

Morning Runner

Babe,
I love your dreams,
Come drift away with me

Babe,
I love your dreams,
Come drift away with me

Stay with me,
Like a letter unsent,
Theres no need to return
Theres no need to return

And all I ask
Is that I hide with you
And never leave me
And never leave me

And when Im lying in bed
Trying to sleep instead
Just to escape it
Escape it

Oh dear,
Its me I fear,
I need a helper
I need a helper

Of ability,
What do you see in me?
I need a helper
I need a helper

Stay with him,
Like a leaving guest.
Theres no need to give up
Theres no need to give up

And all I ask
Is that I hide with you

And never leave me
And never leave me

And when Im lying in bed
Trying to sleep instead
Just to escape it
Escape it

And all I ask
Is that I hide with you
And never leave me
Leave me

And when Im lying in bed
Trying to sleep instead
Just to escape it
Escape it
