Spoiled Brat

Calibretto 13

You're a spoiled brat.
Oh yes, it's true.
You're stuck on self,
Nobody matters but you.
Forget about the hungry in Mexico.
Go play your stupid Nintendo.
We've got everything we want.
We're ungrateful spoiled little brats.
We need a humble self esteem.
Stop living for a selfish dream.
We need to stop
Taking it for granted,
All the wonderful things
That He does for us.
We don't deserve
All of His grace.
We let stupid things take His place.
It's a wonder why
We have trouble living for God,
Always watching that MTV.
We have all the stupid things
That we could ever want,
But we're missing out on
The one thing that we need.
