

Daydreamer

Surrounded By Monsters

We built something out of nothing but heart and soul.
Brick by brick we've built this small path to take us onward.
Onward, we're getting close.

This must be a dream but I can't wake up,
This must be a dream but I can't wake up,
This must be a dream but I can't wake up,
This must be a dream but I can't wake up.

And I can hear the sirens near, coming from the no direction.
Their drone makes me fear the strength isn't here.

All my life I've wanted to express my emotion, it seems this is the only way I know how.
The weeks have been so overwhelming.
Am I running my mind dry?

All my thoughts get lost when I think of you,
All my thoughts get lost when I think of you,
All my thoughts get lost when I think of you, I'll always think of you.
All my thoughts get lost when I think of you, I'll always think of you.
I'll always think of you.
I'll always think of you.

But I promised them I'd hold my own, I'd pave a path for you.
I won't breathe for the next 48 seething hours.

It gets hard to focus on the things that I need to do.
When my pen meets the paper it comes from you.

It gets hard for my mind to cross the county line.
It gets hard for my mind to cross the county line.
