

We Come 1

Faithless

All the subtle flavors of my life
 Are become bitter seeds
 And poisoned leaves without you You represent what's true
 I drain the color from the sky
 And turn blue without you These arms lack a purpose
 Flapping like a humming bird
 I'm nervous 'cause I'm the left eye
 You're the right
 Would it not be madness to fight
 We come one In you the song which rights my wrongs
 In you the fullness of living
 The power to begin again
 From right now, in you
 In you, in you, in you
 In you, in you, in you, in We come one We come one
 In you, in you, in you
 In you, in you, in you, in We come one We come one One
 We come one We come one
 One, one, one, one
 One, one, one, one We come one
 One, one, one, one
 One, one, one, one
 One, one, one, one I'm unafraid
 Never never scared
 Worries washed
 Pressed air
 I am the left eye
 You're the right
 Would it not be madness to fight We come one
 One, one, one, one
 One, one, one, one
 One, one, one, one We come one
 One, one, one, one
 We come one
 We come one
 We come one
 We come one
 We come one
 We come one

One, one, one, one
One, one, one, one
One, one, one, one We come one We come one
One, one, one, one
One, one, one, one [Incomprehensible]
