This Is Goodbye

Well, this is goodbye, the end of you and me
We've set this boat ablaze, pushed it out to sea
Nothing that's on board will survive
This is goodbyeWell, this is goodbye, not the kind we've had before
We're out of one more tries, won't be anymore
And all the grays have turned to black and white
This is goodbyeThis is hard, this is hell, this is pain like I have never felt
Oh, this is final, love has failed
This is walking away from us to save ourselves
This is goodbyeWell, this is goodbye, in my heart there's no doubt
'Cause I can feel the broken pieces trying to cut their way out
Some of them I know I'll never find
This is goodbyeThis is hard, this is hell, this is pain like I have never felt
This is final, love has failed
This is walking away from us to save ourselves
This is goodbyeThis is final, love has failed
This is walking away from us to save ourselves
This is goodbye, this is goodbye
