Wanna Know

Dan Croll

I wanna know where you are, I wanna know when you leave your home.
I wanna call in the night and feel your bones around mine.
I'll hold you safe 'til it's light, hold you safe 'til the summers right.
I want you to stand next to me and feel your arms surrounding me.I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
Oh I really wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhhI wanna know where you are.
I wanna see how you spend your days.
I wanna watch while you work from a distance as I, I close my eyes.
See you standing next to me right by my side.
With your arms surrounding me.I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
Oh I really wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhhAnd I'm just wondering if you're my special thing.
The thought that paces through me.
That makes my every whim (?)
And I can't help but wonder which side you're gonna show.
The one that you should know is... I'll never let you go.I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
I wanna know wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
'Cause I'm just wondering
Oh I really wanna know wanna ah ah ahhhh
Ah ah ahhhh
I really wanna know
Ah ah ahhhh
