

Heavy Rope (Acoustic)

Lights

Strange hands taking my wrists again
Somehow I'm still alone
Voices shaking my steps again
I follow
I'm a little bit on the edge
Hold up hand out of reach
I cant hear much of what you said
To come for me
Dont let me tumble away
Into the throws of the shadowy bank
I cling to the rock and its crumbling off
Toss me a heavy rope, it's a slippery slope
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Turned up in this old place again
Can't seem to get away
Take me back to my element
I'm afraid
Don't let me tumble away
Into the throws of the shadowy bank
I cling to the rock and its crumbling off
Toss me a heavy rope, it's a slippery slopeCome bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Oh, I'm not a lost cause
I'm just stuck in a spot
And I'm close to falling off
So toss me a heavy rope, it's a slippery slope
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Don't let me tumble away
Into the throws of the shadowy bank
I cling to the rock and its crumbling off
Toss me a heavy rope, it's a slippery slope
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
Come bail me out of this God forsaken precipice
